

Sermon Notes for March 7, 2010
Not On My Watch - Part One - National Emphasis
John 4:1-14 (p.1052 in pew Bible)

Most soldiers in our military see their work as more than just a job. They take personal pride in what they do and have a deep sense of ownership in what they do. Christians should be the same way, especially when it comes to doing missions. Missions should be seen as a calling from our Lord where we take responsibility and insist that the needs of people around us will not go unmet...not on my watch.

When doing missions...

begin by _____ your _____.

Most of us make our missions choices based on c_____, not c_____.
Mark 6:30-36

When doing missions...

Working with basic needs gives us _____
_____.

When doing missions...

"Live a life that demands an _____."
I Peter 2:12, I Peter 3:15
